

Victoria Simon

Victoria Simon is currently the Assistant Vice President in Energy & Telecommunications at the New York City Economic Development Corporation, the City's primary vehicle for economic development. In that role, she serves as Chief of Staff to the Senior Vice President of Energy & Telecommunications and works on a number of special projects including the Energy Chapter of the Mayor's PlaNYC, the City's long-term, sustainability plan; development of the report to Governor Pataki and the legislature from the Temporary Commission on the Future of the New York State Power Programs for Economic Development; and work on the investigation into the Queens/Long Island City July 2006 power outage and the City's Report on that investigation.